Chambliss Welcomes Jennie Corley as Client Development Manager

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (September 17, 2025) – Chambliss, Bahner & Stophel, P.C. welcomes new Client Development Manager, Jennie Corley, who will serve on the marketing and business development team.

Jennie Corley

"We are excited to welcome Jennie to the firm as our new Client Development Manager," said President and Managing Shareholder Steve Barham. "Jennie is dedicated to cultivating strong relationships locally and beyond, while supporting our shareholders as they expand their networks. Her extensive experience brings valuable insights to strengthen the firm and support our business development team."

Jennie is a key asset in nurturing client relationships, overseeing prospective opportunities, and advancing new business initiatives. She supports the firm's strategic goals by collaborating with the firm leadership, individual shareholders, practice group leaders, and the marketing and business development team.

"Jennie is quickly becoming an essential driver of the firm's growth," said Marketing and Business Development Director Aricia Gallaher. "She plays a key role in developing new client relationships and uncovering opportunities that strengthen our market position, expanding our presence locally, regionally, and nationally."

With a decade of experience as a corporate attorney and a background in government relations, Jennie has led initiatives at both regional firms and a National Law Journal's NLJ 250 firm. Her legal industry background equips her with the insights and understanding necessary to effectively meet clients' needs while aligning with the strengths of Chambliss attorneys. Jennie collaborates with attorneys across the firm's various practice areas to identify new opportunities for growth and continue strategic outreach.
