

Grant, Konvalinka and Harrison, P.C. is pleased to announce Savannah May has joined the firm as an associate. Savannah is a native of Soddy-Daisy, Tennessee and attended Soddy-Daisy High School. She graduated from the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga in 2017 with the highest honors, earning a B.A. in English: Rhetoric and Professional Writing and a B.A. in Spanish. Savannah attended law school at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville, where she graduated in 2022 with the highest honors.

While in law school, Savannah received awards of excellence in 11 law school courses. She also represented clients as a student attorney in the Domestic Violence Clinic, trained as a student mediator in the Family Mediation Clinic, and participated in a presentation on mediation involving intimate partner violence at the Knoxville Family Justice Center's Inaugural Domestic Violence Awareness and Prevention Conference.

Savannah has worked at GKH since 2017 and has worn many hats during her time with the firm. She clerked for GKH throughout law school and joined the firm as an attorney in 2022. Savannah's areas of practice include family law and civil litigation.

In her spare time, Savannah enjoys practicing yoga, playing with her French Bulldog Otis, and spending time in the mountains where she grew up.